RON SCHARA PRODUCTIONS TO PRODUCE MONSTERQUEST EPISODES FOR THE HISTORY CHANNEL

(Minneapolis, MN) Ron Schara Productions, an award-winning television production company, has renewed three more “MonsterQuest” shows for the History Channel.

The hugely popular MonsterQuest series, which has aired on The History Channel since October 31ST, 2007 is gearing up for another slate of monsters. Schara’s production team has handled several of the shows in the past, including Ohio Grassman, Hogzilla, Bigfoot Natives, Monster Fish, Lake Champ, and others. The crew has traveled the world in search of monsters, including Australia, Sumatra and China.

“We’re excited to expand outside the nature world,” said RSP’s President, Mitch Petrie, “and venture into the world of the supernatural”.

MonsterQuest is a documentary television series that began to air last year on The History Channel, and has found a loyal following of viewers. From Bigfoot to Swamp Beast, Monsterquest reveals the truth of legendary monster sightings from around the world. Deploying the latest in hi-tech equipment, each episode scientifically examines the best evidence available, from pictures and video, to hair and bones, as well as the eyewitness accounts themselves. One part history, one part science and one part Monsters, MonsterQuest discovers the truth behind these legendary monsters.

The Monsterquest episodes are currently being organized for 08 and 09. Additional information on our MonsterQuest episodes will be posted on our website –
