MINNEAPOLIS, MN. (March, 2008) - Ron Schara's popular television program, Minnesota Bound, will be producing show number #500. The show, which airs on KARE-11, NBC, will air on Sunday March 23rd at 10:30 p.m. (and will re-air the following Saturday night, March 29th at 6:30 p.m.)

Ron Schara, who hosts the show along with his side-kick Raven, started producing the outdoor show in 1995. Since then, Schara has logged #13 years of story-telling on KARE-11, and has tallied 7 Emmy's and other numerous awards.

Quote from Ron, "We began at kare, . done. Now we're at #500 and counting. Why? I wish I knew. Raven I suspect."

Show #500 of Minnesota Bound will be a celebration of birds. Segments include:

Birds ranging from loons to hummingbirds.

Loon Cam

Hummingbird man

Cannon River Pelicans

Birds at the U
