CHINA'S WILDMAN HAS MINNESOTA CONNECTIONS
Ron Schara Productions announces the debut of two History
Channel Monster Quest programs

(Mpls, MN.) Ron Schara Productions, an award-winning television production company, and The History Channel are announcing the air dates of two highly anticipated Monster Quest programs: CHINA'S WILDMAN and REAL DRAGONS.

China's Wildman, filmed in the mountainous regions of China's remote Hubei province, debuted on Sept. 14th, and will be re-aired through out the month (see www.HistoryChannel.com for an extended schedule and click on the Monster Quest logo). Ron Schara's production expedition traveled to the Far East to meet the Wild-Man experts and join an international team in a search for answers.

Real Dragons, a feature on the huge Megalania lizard filmed in the Blue Mountains of Australia, will debut on Nov. 12th, 2008 at 9:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. CT (this is the season finale of the Monster Quest series) These giant reptiles can reach sizes of over ten feet long and have a venomous bite. Ron Schara's production team examined recent reports of attacks and even killings by the world's largest known lizards.

The MonsterQuest series, which has aired on The History Channel since Oct. 31st, 2007, is a documentary television series that has found a loyal following of viewers. From Bigfoot to Swamp Beast, MonsterQuest reveals the truth of legendary monster sightings from around the world. Deploying the latest in hi-tech equipment, each episode scientifically examines the best evidence available, from pictures and video, to hair and bones, as well as the eyewitness accounts themselves. One part history, one part science and one part monsters, Monster Quest discovers the truth behind these legendary monsters.
